Let's be an encourager. In Romans 15:5, Jesus is asking you to love and encourage others just as he does "May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had," . Wholeheartedly! With enthusiasm and grace.

Take the time to look around you, at work, at church, in the grocery store wherever you travel in the community. I promise you that someone out there needs some encouragement from someone. Just a small compliment can go a long way in someones day. It takes so little effort and brings such rewards. And don't forget those who are the closest to you, family and best friends. We can be too close at times and not see that these special people might need you to bolster them up a little.

We all know what "random acts of kindness" mean right? Well that is encouragement! Let's all try and seek out the opportunity to give a little kindness and encouragement, Be safe, don't get too close, let your words and actions show you care.

Let's follow Jesus' example of loving and providing everyone who came to him with a need. We can be an encourager to one another. Be patient and kind in all encounters. Let them see we are his people by our love for one another.

Blessings, Lisa Scarborough
