Volunteer hi-lights

Since we are still not in our new space and all our service food items are in a storage container we decided to hold our monthly Food Commodity Giveaway at a partner church. Thanks very much to the Presbyterian Church for allowing us to use their fellowship hall, it was a perfect venue.

Special thanks and Kudos to our volunteers and their spouses who hauled 100's of pounds of food from storage to the Presbyterian church and back again! Judith & Sam McQuerry, Laurie & Marty Gillet, Ruth Thompsett, Nancy McDonald, Sonya Christensen.

We only served 26 households last Thursday, but we had 25 different food items and everyone walked away with many bags of food.

This is a Federal program that sends out food items to schools, shelters, soup kitchens and food pantries. We distribute the food once a month.

Client Comments

I just wanted to thank you for all you do. My husband hasn't been working for over 2 years and the commodities really are appreciated and, I would also love to thank all of you who work so very hard getting the food distributed. Your hard work does not go unappreciated. - RB

Listed below are Love In Actions partner churches. These churches provide yearly support to LIA. It comes in many different ways. Each church gives financially every year. All our 60+ volunteers belong to one of our partner churches, They also offer encouraging spiritual and emotional support.

By working together in the community we are able to provide better and consistent services year round.

Thanks to all our partner churches for their dedication to serving our neighbors.

I want to give you an update on our move! It hasn't happened yet! We are still waiting for the repairs to be finished. Our service items like our food pantry and other closets are in a storage unit. Our office is still where it has been for many years next door to the White Cliff Church (thanks so much for your gift of this space). We are biding our time.

Services have been steady this winter with many people needing help with rent and utilities. We have been distributing the Safeway gift cards along with a bag of non-perishable food to those who need groceries. And of course when the weather is so bad we pass along many bags of bus tokens.

Please continue to be the loving and safety conscious community we are. Be safe and look out for your elderly and disabled neighbors. Thanks! Lisa
