Bob,

Just wondering if you reviewed and had any objections to the two-board appointment Ms. Maxwell sent over for the Historic Commission.

Thanks,

Hi Kim,

The Historic Commission would like to recommend Dr. John Radzilowski for membership on the Commission. Dr. Radzilowski would be an excellent addition to the Commission based on his extensive understanding of local history. He would be fulfilling the role of historian, per the Municipal Code.

Please note that Silvia Greuter and Dragon London both have resigned from the Commission effective March 2021. We thank them for their service! Ms. Greuter is moving on to new projects and Ms. London will be leaving Ketchikan.

Thank you,
Anita

Dear Ms. London,

I am writing to place my name in consideration for a seat on the City of Ketchikan Historic Commission.

I have lived in Ketchikan since 2007 and am a professor of history at University of Alaska Southeast. I received a BA in history from Southwest Minnesota State University in 1989 and a Ph.D. in history from Arizona State University in 1999 with fields in U.S., Russian/East European, and Public History.

In my home state of Minnesota I worked extensively with historical societies and museums as a consultant and author. I have a particular interest in local and regional history as well as the history of immigration. In addition, I have taught courses in historic preservation at American Military University. Since 2008, I have also taught regular courses on Alaska History at UAS. Here in Ketchikan I served as a member of the collections advisory committee for the City Museum department and worked as a summer guide for the Totem Heritage Center (both as tour guide and senior tour guide). A full copy of my curriculum vita is available on request.

With thanks, I am,
Yours sincerely,
